

Passenger Vehicle Engineer

Job Description

Are you looking for a role working in an exciting fast paced environment?

An opportunity has become available for an Engineer to join our team at London Gatwick Airport working both Airside and Landside.

Reporting to the Engineering Manager, you will be responsible for maintaining and repairing vehicles to strict Company standards and adhering to all Health & Safety guidelines.

You'll need to be familiar with PCVs as we operate a fleet of 50+ PCV vehicles at Gatwick Airport, as well as being fully up to date with all current VOSA regulations.

Main Duties & Responsibilities

- Carry out routine safety inspections, mot preparations, Service to a higher standard than VOSA's minimum standard, along with rectifying defects that have been identified on the inspection
- Rectify drivers defects as a requested
- Attend promptly all vehicle breakdowns as requested by the Engineering Manager
- Check all vehicles for missing livery, or signage, (i.e. legal lettering) and replace if possible or notify Engineering Manager of issues so alternative arrangements can be made
- Correctly complete job cards, Safety inspections sheets, and drivers defect reports for each job before starting the next job
- Keep the workshop in a clean & tidy state. (clean as you go)
- Comply with company Health & Safety Policies and Procedures
- Any other reasonable work related request
- Working shift patterns is required

Experience, Knowledge & Qualifications

- PCV/HGV Licence desirable
- Previous experience
- Relevant City & Guilds qualifications –NVQ 2 in mechanical commercial vehicles
- Excellent diagnostic skills and a familiarity of Department of Transport Standards (VOSA) would be desirable
- Team working and good communication skills are paramount

Benefits

What we can offer you:

- Full time, permanent contract
- Competitive rate of pay
- Full training
- Full uniform
- Training and development opportunities
- Free parking whilst on duty
- Discounts with retailers, travel and much more with a Gatwick Airport ID card